- Sensory Room Project- Presentation from Kim M and JulieB ...request room 217 be used as the "Sensory Room." Requested approval from CLC for Disabilities Justice team to present request for funds from the Living Memorial committee. For more info contact JT Young.
--VOTE - Motion: We approved the request to bring the sensory room proposal to Living Memorials Committee to request funds to be made available to allocate for implementing a sensory room. Living Memorials to send their recommendation to CLC for a vote. Motion unanimously approved.
- Nursery & Pre K program presentation from Cindy Smuda
--Project underway to revitalize the Kids ministry. Several things need to be done to build/ rebuild the foundation- identify space on the main floor to use, refurbish rooms, select the appropriate curriculum, etc..
--The committee is leaning strongly to have paid nursery workers. They will decide and formally request approval from the CLC.
--Family Ministry Dir. Kyle Baldwin is providing leadership to the group.
- Providence Academy update
--They have made other arrangements and will not need to rent space from Concord Trinity UMC.
- inExcelsis
--An agreement with inExcelsis Ministries was signed to make partnership official.
--Amber Wise of inExcelsis uses a work station in our offices part time and is available to meet with groups about inExcelsis programs.
- Finance
--The check from the insurance company was not deposited as of the April finance report.
--Consider finishing paying off the mortgage on the church building to coincide with CTUMC 70th anniversary next year.
- Executive Session
- Closing prayer: Leslie
